Dear Josh:

Many thanks for remembering that I would be interested in even a minuscule tribute to Barbara McClintock. At some point in talking about Barbara I will try to bring in your special recollection. ↓

The response to our letter to members of the Genetic Society of America for support for the McClintock Fellowships has been very rewarding. It is evident that many people welcome the opportunity to help honor Barbara in this way. We are hopeful that the enthusiastic response will be good ammunition when we go to foundations and philanthropists for endowment support for the fellowships.

It was very good to see you on that wonderful occasion in New York a few weeks ago.

With very best regards,

Sincerely,

Maxine F. Singer /dmm
